No.125257-BIII/47-10, dated 16th October 1948.

O R D E R:

The Government accept the recommendation of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies to continue for another year from 1st January 1948 the scheme for the collection and marketing of eggs through the agency of co-operative societies.

2. His Excellency the Governor of Madras sanctions the payment to each of the 33 Egg Marketing Societies included in the scheme of a free grant of Rs.840/- for one year from 1st January 1948 to meet the following items of expenditure:--

Pay of two Egg Collectors at Rs.20/- each per mensem for one year	..	Rs.480/-
Pay of one clerk at Rs.25/- per mensem for one year	..	" 300/-
Rent for office premises at Rs.5/- per mensem for one year	..	" 60/-
Total	..	Rs.840/-

3. Sanction is also accorded to the retention for another year from the date of expiry of the present sanction of the four posts of Junior Inspectors of Co-operative Societies employed for work in connection with these societies.

4. The expenditure on account of the payment of free grant and the employment of four Junior Inspectors will continue to be debited to "42-Cooperation" under the heads "C-Grants-in-aid" and "b-Superintendence", respectively.

5. The action of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies in having continued the scheme in anticipation of the sanction of the Government is approved.

6. The Government of India have been addressed for a half-grant towards the cost involved in the continuance of the scheme for another year from 1st January 1948 and their orders are still awaited. As it is unlikely that they will continue this half-grant, the Registrar is informed that the scheme will not be continued after 31st December 1948.
